I hope you're doing well! I wonder if you'll be free to join us for a weekend trip to the coast. My cousin Sarah is coming along, and she'll be bringing her new boyfriend, Alex. You'll meet Alex yet, but I think you'll get along very well. He's a marine biologist and I have some fascinating stories to tell about his work. Sarah says that Alex doesn't like crowded tourist spots, so we'll spend most of the time walking on the beach or exploring small, quiet towns nearby. We'll arrive on Friday afternoon, and we'll stay until Sunday evening. I don't want to stay in a big hotel, so we'll rent a cottage near the coves. It'll be a bit isolated, but I think we'll enjoy the peace and quiet. I hope you will be able to come.

I like spending time with my friends, and there so many places where we can get fun. The first place it is park. The best season of year for this place it is sunny summer day. In this place we can do a lot of activities. For example: playing sport games like football, volleyball or some fun games, singing some musics or playing table games in our beautiful nature. I like this place because spending time in nature very good choice. And the second place it is cinema. But from my point of view this place will be better if we go there on winter or autumn. In this season of year there become cold and watching new films in different types will be the best choice. Yes, we can watch films at home, but in cinema you can watch films that filmed some time before. And also films in the big TV very excellent choice. You can buy some drinks and eat very delicious popcorn. The third place it is different cafes. In cafe you can order something and communicate with your friends. In this place also you can play some table games and also if there have karaoke you can sing some songs. In conclusion there so many places to visit with your friends, but my choices are: park, cinema, and also cafe. This places very comfortable and easier to find and go, because in nowadays this places are so much.

Also I can tell the history of our city for our dear students so they could understand the meaning of our city and country. As a guide I can provide a safe place, warm bed, quality food for our students because I care about them.

How can teenagers balance schoolwork and free time?

The most important thing for teenagers and also adult people who work, in my opinion - is taking care of your own health. If you're feeling unwell and sad, just sleep and go outside, walk with your pet or listen to music. The second one - don't ignore your physical health, it's very important and can even save your life. ^{They go} Eat healthy food, if you can, go to gym and talk to your friends and siblings/family. It will surely help you become more happy and enthusiastic, so you can focus more on studying and working. The balance of studying and spending your free time is the most important, cause if you're not keeping that rule, you'll eventually feel badly, or even depressed. It's important how you spend your free time, don't sit in your phone all days, on social medias, they give you zero help, otherwise spend your time with your friends ^{or} family, but without ^{healthy} unhelpful things like smoking or drinking, it will just make everything far worse than you imagine. Make your studying more fun by having your people around you, who also working on their projects, it will make you feel more comfortable and calm.

Writing III

Variant 1

"How can teenagers balance schoolwork and free time?"

In the mess of endless assignments and schoolwork, teenagers find it really difficult to have a spare time for themselves. It's essential to be good in education, but despite being clever, it is important to have time for the personal growth too.

Talking about school, teenagers may feel under pressure from the society and teachers, feeling the need to do a lot of assignments as a homework. Yes, homework is not loved by everyone. Why? The answer is simple and clear as a day. Doing homework takes away the precious time of the students, making them to have only a little time for themselves. It's not about not doing it, it's about managing your time right, so after your school related work you will be able to do your own business.

After getting home from your school, try to do homework after an hour or two, believe me, it will become much easier and at evening you will be busy minding your own things. Free time provides an opportunity for self growth. Doing activities that brings you a sense of happiness and satisfaction may also bring you success in the future. Focusing on yourself is important, and no matter how lazy you feel to do your work or tasks in time, do it anyways.

In conclusion, finding a balance between important tasks and academic achievements, and your own interests and leisure activities is essential. Don't forget to manage your spare time mindfully, so you won't feel pressured with schoolwork, fearing you might do it late at night instead of taking a proper amount of sleep. Nothing between this two should interrupt one another, only the right time management and good control.

Variant 3.

Nowadays, a great holiday for teenagers travelling, chilling, learning new things, being (consisting) in a good company of friends, being with your family, having lovely moments, enjoy life, doing activities.

In my holiday, I went to the different cities of my country, was on the beach of my own town, had great experiences with my friends, we hang out a lot. I was at Almaty, Almaty is very lovely city to me. Almaty is for young people. I went to the mountains, saw beautiful sunsets, went to shopping with my friends, ate delicious foods, dishes, and I travelled a lot. To me travelling is the perfect type of holiday. I prefer to travel in holidays to teenagers and not staying at home. Earth is full of great, beautiful places, we should seek them once in our lifetime.

Teenagers should try new things, we are young. A great holiday is not staying at home, it's having great experiences.
